Pen and ink is a versatile alternative to painting and pencil drawing, particularly when traveling. Using just four pens in analogous colors and different values you will learn how to build up value and form. This five-day workshop offers an integrated approach between pen (Micron pen, Ballpoint), Watercolor, Acrylic, and your chosen surface. Focus will be on the figure, both nude and clothed. Demos and/or lectures with examples will be given at the beginning of each day. Whether you are a beginner or advanced artist, individual attention and feedback will be provided to help you reach a new level of understanding of this medium and its capabilities.

Janet A. Cook currently teaches at the Pastel Society of America, NYC. She recently taught workshops in France and at the Southern Utah University. She studied at the Art Students League and the National Academy of Art and Design and holds a degree in the History of Art from de Montford University, UK.

She is represented by Haven Gallery in Northport, NY and Dacia Gallery NYC where she just had her third solo show. Her work has been shown throughout the US, England, France, Germany, and Romania and is held in many collections including the Trenton City Museum, NJ.
